TRINITY TOMORROW CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

TRINITY TOMORROW COUNTRY FAIR

Please come help us launch the next step of "Trinity Tomorrow" at our Country Fair TODAY from 8:00 AM to 1:00 PM in the courtyard. A festive day for all ages with food, games and fun! Come learn all about our plans for our children and youth facilities.

CREATING A STEWARDSHIP LIFESTYLE MINDSET

An Adult Series entitled "Creating a Stewardship Lifestyle Mindset for the Trinity Tomorrow Capital Campaign" will be held for four weeks starting Sunday, April 19th and continuing through Sunday, May 10th. Sunday discussions will be held in Atrium Rm. 215 at 10:00 a.m. Members of the Spiritual Emphasis Committee are available to facilitate discussions with Parish Small Groups during the week days. All are welcome to attend. For more information please contact the church office.

Our Capital Campaign begins today and moves at an exciting pace toward conclusion on May 17th, 2015. In the next couple of weeks, there will be opportunities for families who would like to make their financial commitment to the Trinity Tomorrow Capital Campaign in advance of the rest of the parish. If you would like to participate in such an opportunity, please call or email Mike Thomson (Thomson.mike@yahoo.com or 281-298-1109). We will make arrangements for you to attend.

The altar flowers are given today in celebration of the birthday of my son Aaron Michaelson by Kerran Michaelson.

THANK YOU TRINITARIANS! We provided 3500 pounds of food to the Interfaith Food Pantry from our Lenten Wall of Compassion. This is our largest food drive in 4 years! A wonderful example of how our individual efforts can make a big difference in our community.
